REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENVION.

The republican county convention met at the court house this morning and effected temporary organization by electing Capt. F. S. Ingalls chairman and J. S. Colbath secretary.

On motion the chair appointed the following committees:

After naming committees convention adjourned to 7:30 p. m., when permanent organization was effected, reports of committees received and acted upon and the real business of the convention begun—nominating candidates for the various county and precinct offices, to be voted for at the November election.

Convention met at 7:30, and temporary organization being made permanent, Chairman F. S. Ingalls called for report of committees.

The credentials committee reported the following as entitled to seats as delegates from the different precincts:

Committee on order of business, reported nominations to be made in the following order:

Sheriff, treasurer, district attorney, probate judge, recorder, surveyor, supervisors, council and assembly.

After the adoption of this report, Attorney P. T. Robertson very appropriately moved that Judge Kent be asked to take a seat on the "platform," and the motion being adopted, amid enthusiastic applause the judge was escorted to the front and made a few happy remarks which pleased everybody greatly. Judge Kent remarked as an introductory that there seemed to be no platform in sight, but that the republican platform was all right and good enough for any one to stand upon. His remarks were dignified, and full of encouragement for republicans and were roundly cheered.

Peter T. Robertson as chairman of the platform committee then read the platform, which received enthusiastic approval, especially the portions pledging the party to the unqualified support of Robert E. Morrison for delegate to congress; the endorsement of President Roosevelt's administration; government control of all corporate concerns and public utilities; governmental construction, ownership and control of all reservoirs and canal systems; a policy of improvement of roads and highways in the county, and many other good points.

This paragraph in the platform was timely and to the point:

"We cite the present high rate of taxation and the steady increase of our county indebtedness, and that too while our taxable wealth is steadily increasing, as a sample of democratic misrule and an evidence of their unfitness to administer the public affairs in the interest of the people."

The platform favors the adoption of an eight-hour day, and the enactment of a mine inspection law, a primary election law, based on the principle of the general election law, and other laws calculated to benefit the citizen and tax-payer, to all of which every candidate and the party are pledged.

The platform was adopted, entire, and when Mr. Robertson finished, enthusiasm broke forth in loud cheers.

Nominations now followed in quick succession, each candidate receiving the entire vote of the convention. Every nomination was unanimous.

There was no sign of discord throughout the entire proceedings. Everybody seemed to be especially pleased with the ticket which is probably as strong as it could have been made. The candidates are all capable, good citizens and most of them are known to every voter in the county.

It is impossible at this time to deal with the personnel of the ticket in detail, but in future issues of the Sentinel each nominee will be presented in proper light, and the whole of the ticket receive the hearty support to which it is entitled.

The ticket named, and which will be elected, is in its proper place on this page.

THE PHOENIX CONVENTION.

The body of republicans which nominated Hon. Robert E. Morrison as the republican candidate for delegate to congress constituted one of the most enthusiastic and spirited republican conventions ever held in the territory. It is true the nomination was brought to a close and exciting contest, but the efforts of the friends of both candidates were friendly throughout, and when the deciding ballot was taken the nomination of Mr. Morrison was made unanimous. Neither candidate sought the nomination, and either would have been willing to withdraw in favor of the other had not the loyalty of the friends of both intervened. The fact that the contest was fought to a friendly, close and enthusiastic finish augurs well for republican success in November. It shows that the republicans are alive, and also awake and full of hope.

There are no factions in the republican party of Arizona. The party is united as never before, and with a strong and able candidate like Mr. Morrison, the prospects for the election of a republican delegate were never better than now. Factionalism has disappeared, enthusiasm has taken the place of apathy, and victory seems all but assured.

By the election of Robert E. Morrison Arizona would have a representative in the national legislature who would at once acquire influential standing among his compeers; a representative who may not be so proficient in the ethics of draw poker and convivial adjuncts as some of his predecessors have been, but one who will pay more attention to the wants of his constituents and be capable of doing something for their interests.

THE AX of toughest steel becomes dulled by constant use and must have a new edge if it is to do good work. Constant work dulls a man as it does an ax, makes him sluggish of body and dull of mind. He needs a tonic, something that will restore the keenness of mind and activity of body.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery puts new life into weak, worn-out, run-down men and women. It strengthens the weak stomach, purifies the blood, and effectively stimulates the liver. The whole body is built up with sound, solid flesh by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I was confined to my bed for four months from January 1st, 1899, and commenced to take your medicine January 26th, 1899," writes Mrs. Sallie L. Sheppard, of Poplarbluff, Mo. "I took eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, four of 'Favorite Prescription,' two vials of 'Pleasant Pellets,' and one bottle of Doctor Pierce's Compound Extract of Smartweed, as a liniment. Indigestion, obstinate constipation, and hardening of the liver was my trouble. I am at this time able to do almost any kind of house work. Your medicine saved me from my grave. Thanks to you for the benefit. My case was hopeless when I began taking your medicine."

Don't be fooled into trading a substance for a shadow. Any substitute offered as "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery," is a shadow of that medicine. There are cures behind every claim made for the "Discovery," which no "just as good" medicine can show.

Biliousness is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Shooting on Horseback.

In recent years in almost all countries military tournaments have been added to the number of public entertainments, and as they have quasi government backing, they attract unusual attention. It is supposed that the best military evolutions, maneuvers and drills of all branches of the army are then displayed and they have proven both interesting and instructive. The private enterprise of Messrs. Cody and Salsbury of Buffalo Bill's Wild West a decade ago added the military feature to their great entertainment and gave the concentrated essence of perfection in cavalry and artillery maneuvers and drill participated in by veteran soldiers of several countries. This goes several steps farther in interesting and educative entertainment than does any tournament participated in only by the soldiers of one country. In no other arena, on no other field, save at Buffalo Bill's Wild West can be seen in friendly rivalry, showing their national military training, American artillery, American cavalry, Russian cossacks, English and German calalry, Indians, Cowboys, Mexicans, Arabs, Gauchos, Rocsevelt and every description of real Rough Riders. Nothing can be added to this, the limit of the equestrian game. Here is a combination of military elements from the great nations such as no country has ever seen outside of the Wild West, and the perfection of detail attained by these men in giving their exhibitions is the marvel of military men of all countries and a source of greatest pleasure to the thousands who daily witness their work with Col. Cody's national entertainment. An annex permissible by its heroic and humanitarian and educative status, is the defiers of the storm, the saviors of the wrecked, the United States Life Saving Crew with government outfit complete, showing the use of the Breeches buoy. Do not miss the street parade on the forenoon of the day of arrival.

District Court.

The September term of the district court opened Monday morning at 9 o'clock with Chief Justice Kent on the bench, Court Reporter W. N. Tiffany, District Clerk Doan, District Attorney Timmons and Sheriff Livingston ready for their respective duties, when the mill of justice should begin to grind. District Clerk Doan is being assisted by Hon. Harry Carpenter. The principal business of the first day was the empanneling of a grand jury and assignment of cases. As on the first day of the March term, the perennial Smith vs. King of Arizona case was the first to engage the attention of the court, and took up most of the day. The court disposed of the case this time by transferring it to Judge Davis of Tucson, remarking that he was sorry to do so, but that he did not think it proper for him to retry the case.

The following attorneys were present: Yuma—Pierce Evans, C. L. Brown, P. T. Robertson, H. C. Dayis, R. F. Davis, District Attorney W. F. Timmons and H. Wupperman; Tucson—E. S. Ives; Phoenix—Thomas Armstrong, Jr.; Los Angeles—J. F. Conroy and —— Swanwick.
