Republican Platform.

We, the Republicans of Yuma County in convention assembled, affirm our continued faith in an adhesion to the tried and proved principles of the Republican party, and pledge anew our loyalty to and support of that grand party which has made of the United States the greatest nation on earth and its citizens the freest and happiest of people.

We endorse the platform promulgated by the Republican Territorial Convention held at the city of Phoenix on the 17th day of September, 1902, and pledge our unqualified support of the candidacy of Robert E. Morrison for Delegate to Congress.

We endorse the vigorous and impartial administration of President Roosevelt and send him our heartiest expressions of good will and support.

We believe in government control of all corporate concerns and public utilities and pledge our legislative candidates to work for and secure, if possible, the amendment of the unjust corporation laws, which now disgrace our statute books, so as to secure the honor and good faith of incorporators and the protection of the people against arrogant power and licensed fraud.

We demand the immediate admission of the Territory of Arizona to statehood and approve of all honorable effort to that end.

We believe it to be the duty of the federal government to reclaim the arid lands of our country and make of them suitable places of abode for the husbandman, and to that end we favor governmental construction, ownership and control of all reservoirs and canal systems.

We believe in adopting a policy of steady improvement of the roads and highways, and the promotion of the internal welfare of the county to the greatest possible extent.

We insist upon honesty, integrity, ability and economy in the public service and the devotion by public servants of their time and ability to the promotion of the public good; and to these our candidates stand committed.

We cite the present high rate of taxation and the steady increase of our county indebtedness, and that too while our taxable wealth is steadily increasing, as a sample of Democratic misrule and an evidence of their unfitness to administer the public affairs in the interest of the people.

We believe that every class of property should pay its just proportion of the public revenue, and to secure this end we demand that our revenue laws be so amended as to prevent any class of property escaping its share of the public burdens.

We believe that the Creator of all things intended that man's time should be so divided that he might devote a portion thereof to labor, a portion to the cultivation of his mental, social and spiritual welfare, and a portion to rest and repose; we therefore favor the enactment of an eight hour labor law.

Prompted by feelings of humanity and justice and recognizing that law of nature which makes of every man his brother's keeper, we demand the enactment of a law providing for the inspection and regulation, by skilled and honest public officers, of mines, boilers, machinery, and agencies dangerous to operate, to the end that the greatest possible safety may be guaranteed to laborers whose lot it is to operate them, and the owners thereof protected from useless litigation.

We demand the enactment of such primary election laws, based upon the principle of our present general election laws, as will guarantee to the voters the greatest possible immunity from ring or boss rule and secure to them a freer voice in the selection of party candidates than they now have.

To these principles we stand committed. To them we pledge our united and individual support; and we submit them to the fair and impartial judgment of an intelligent people whose voice but proclaims the will of the land, and upon whom rests the precious duty of guarding well and perpetuating the ideals bequeathed to us by the patriot fathers of our country.

"To say a pleasant word to anyone was almost impossible."

"I was troubled with female weakness for eight years; and suffered more than I can tell," writes Mrs. Gust. Moser of Ovando, Deerlodge Co., Mont. "My disposition was affected to such an extent that to say a pleasant word to anyone was almost impossible.

"I had two operations performed by one of the most skilled surgeons of the West, but did not get relief. Then, against my doctor's strict orders, I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and also followed the advice given in the Common Sense Medical Adviser.

"I continued this treatment for three months, and to-day am as healthy and well as a woman can be. I cannot thank Doctor Pierce enough for his kind letters to me."

Womanly diseases, as a rule, spoil the "disposition," because of the extreme nervousness and suffering they cause. Happiness as well as health is restored to the woman whose diseased condition is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

After eight years of suffering and two fruitless operations, three months' use of "Favorite Prescription" restored Mrs. Moser to perfect health. This great remedy for woman's ills, establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

BOB MORRISON UP NORTH.

Robert E. Morrison will be in Kingman on the first of October and the people will have a chance to judge between the two candidates for delegate to congress. Mr. Morrison is one of the brightest men in Arizona today. Clean, capacitative, active, experienced, a man of the people, in touch with all classes, Robert E. Morrison wins friends wherever he goes. No man who has ever met the republican candidate will ever forget his kindly manner and winning ways. Several years ago he was elected district attorney of Yavapai county over Col. Wilson by a handsome majority, which shows how he stands in his home county. This year he will have several hundred majority over Wilson in Yavapai county, while in the south he will carry every county, outside of possibly Graham.

The above is from the Mohave County Miner, a Bryan Silver paper, and therefore is as strong an endorsement as any candidate could wish. We believe these predictions will come true and that Morrison will be our next delegate to congress.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

We didn't have time last week to touch upon the personnel of of the Yuma county republican ticket, so we promised it this week. We will now fulfill that promise.

THE LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

In selecting the legislative ticket the county convention displayed rare judgment and foresight in placing before the people F. L. Ewing for the council and Capt. F. S. Ingalls for the assembly.

F. L. Ewing has lived in this county for many years and has served the people in several positions of trust and confidence, in each of which he has given entire satisfaction. He is one of our leading business men and is known by all as a man of integrity and ability. Politically he has always been a republican and while he is always counted a good party man, he is never a radical but ranks among the conservative class and as a public servant he will represent the whole people. It is a source of much gratification to us to say that he is not an office seeker. In his case the office sought the man. The party with one voice demanded his nomination and when the convention unanimously declared the will of an united party by placing him at the head of the ticket the vast audience in attendance shouted their approval in thunderous applause.

Captain F. S. Ingalls is a man whose reputation is not confined within the boundary limits of our county. Years ago he served as assistant to the secretary of the territory and later was twice superintendent of the territorial prison, since which time he has been a valuable citizen of Yuma county. After his term as superintendent of the prison he settled in the Yuma valley and for years devoted his time and energy in securing the development of that magnificent territory. He has served as treasurer of Yuma county, mayor of the town of Yuma and school trustee of this district and in every position in which his people have placed him he has always been true blue. He is one of those broad minded men whose every desire is to be of service to his home and country. In the legislative halls he will be a representative of the true American type.

Two better men than Ewing and Ingalls could not have been chosen to head the ticket.

JOHN M. SPEESE.

It would be a difficult task indeed for us to say something new about John Speese. Every miner and farmer in the county knows him and every one is proud to call John a friend. As sheriff of the county he made an enviable record. The affairs of the office were administered in a business-like manner and at a minimum of cost to the taxpayer. John is no office seeker and when his successful term of office expired two years ago he went to work heroically to do his country great service by constructiug a canal to irrigate a portion of our arid lands. His project is well under way and the canal an assured fact. When it is completed and forty or fifty thousand acres of land, which is now worthless, is reclaimed and converted into prosperous homes the people will realize more fully the value of this good man. His nomination was demanded by the people--democrats as well as republicans--and, in answering this demand, the convention nominated a sure winner. John will be the next sheriff of Yuma county.

SMITH AND CLARK.

In no instance did the convention show the good sense of the delegates than in their selection of our candidates for supervisors. Unlike the democratic delegates, they recognized and acted upon the principle that different parts of the county should be represented upon the board and they nominated L. B. Clark of Mohawk and Cash Smith of Yuma valley. Both of these gentlemen are men of good business ability. They are plain, everyday men of the people, men, who know their business and go ahead and do it just as business men always do. They come from among the people, true representatives of their fellows. They are pledged to economy in the public service and when elected, as they surely will be, they will honestly, faithfully and economically manage the affairs of the county. With them on the board the county will be in safe hands.

H. C. DAVIS.

When A. F. White of Yuma valley placed Judge Davis in nomination, he said the Judge had resided in Yuma county for the last seventy-five years. Mr. White was mistaken in this. Judge Davis has only resided here about fifteen years, but he has been here long enough to prove his merit and secure a place on the republican ticket—a good enough endorsement of any man's character. The judge is one of those staunch old hero's who is always on the side of the right. In the practice of his profession he is honorable and upright and always guards with jealous care the dignity of his profession. When elected he will be faithful and conscientious in the discharge of every duty. The judge promises to stop the illegal leakages from the public treasury and to reduce the expenses of our criminal prosecutions to a minimum and, at the same time, to see that "no guilty man escapes."

Let every voter, who has the best interest of the county at heart, go for Judge Davis now and after he is elected district attorney he will go for the law breaker in dead earnest—and his indictments will not be demurred out either.

W. H. LEWIS.

Our next county recorder will be W. H. Lewis. Mr. Lewis came here from Washington City, where he was born and raised, with his brother, Charles Lewis, and secured farms in Yuma valley, where he is now engaged in tilling the soil. He is a graduate of the Spencerian business college of Washington City, and is in every way qualified to keep the county records. If elected he will keep a fee book and will rectify many of the abuses now prevalent in the county recorder's office. His election means records up to date instead of months behind. Vote for Billy and the records of Yuma county will be properly kept in future.

E. F. SANGUINETTI.

Who doesn't know "Eugene?" He came here a boy and took a position as clerk in his uncle's store. By industry and thrift coupled with keen business sagacity he worked himself up to the position of partner in the establishment and later he became sole owner thereof by purchasing his uncle's interest. This business he has so managed that it is now one of the great mercantile houses of the territory. Always genial and pleasant, it is a positive delight to meet him, and in all his business transactions he is fair and square. If we were to start out to find a model candidate for treasurer we would pick him out first, last and all the time. A vote for E. F. Sanguinetti is a vote for a safe custodian of the county funds. We take off our hat to Eugene F. Sanguinetti, the next treasurer of Yuma county.

J. A. CROUCH.

J. A. Crouch, as good a man as ever drew breath, is to be our next probate judge and as such ex-officio school superintendent. Wherever there is a cry of distress or a call for charity, there one will see, first to the rescue, J. A. Crouch. His great heart ever is on the side of right and justice. No one will or can question his fitness to discharge the duties of the office to which he aspires. He is especially interested in schools and this branch of the office will receive at his hands special attention. This alone should commend him to the favorable consideration of every voter. In the probate department his positive honesty will insure perfect safety to every estate probated by him. No better man could have been nominated for probate judge than J. A. Crouch.

W. H. ELLIOTT.

Mr. Elliott has again been nominated for re-election to the office of county surveyor. He is the only skilled civil engineer in Yuma county with a complement of instruments to do all kinds of work in his line. He has devoted a life to his profession and we are prepared to say that he is as good as they make them. His work is always correct and done with neatness and dispatch. Whenever there is a demand for good work his services are in demand. He has sighted his transit over nearly every foot of Yuma county and is familiar with every hill and valley. He is known to almost every voter and all know him to be the man for the office. Prepare your bond, Mr. Elliott, and be ready for another two years of official life.

GEORGE M. THURLOW.

There isn't a man woman or child in Yuma precinct who doesn't know Judge Thurlow. He has lived here for the last one hundred and fifty years, served the people in many different capacities from prison superintendent to town councilman, and in every position of trust he has made a splendid officer. George is straight goods, all wool and a yard wide. With him on the bench as justice of the peace the peace of the community is secure.

Vote for George.

H. H. McPHAUL.

When our undershiff Matt B. DeVane was assassinated, nearly two years ago there was one man who went on the hunt of the assassin with an energy and determination of purpose that meant but one thing—the capture of the criminal. That man was Harry McPhaul. He captured Thomas Hart, the assassin and brought him to justice. This piece of work is but a sample of what he always is when there is anything to do and of itself is a sufficient guarantee of the kind of an officer we will have in Harry.

Harry should be elected and he will. No better officer can be found. His election is conceded by both democrats and republicans.

This is our ticket. If we haven't done full justice to it, it is because we haven't the space to do it in. Every man on the ticket is well qualified for the office for which he has been nominated. From now until election we will give the ticket our heartiest support and on election day we will give the still further support of our votes.

It is not possible for the proprietors to publish more than a very few of the numerous letters received in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and telling of its remarkable cures. They come from people in every walk in life and from every state in the Union. The following from Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Plattsburg, Ga., speaks for itself: "I would have been dead now but for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me of chronic diarrhoea after seven years of suffering. I can never say too much in praise of that remedy." For sale at Cotter's drug store.

The attempt of the democrats to inject the Mormon church into the campaign as an issue has received a well merited rebuke from President Andrew Kimball of the Mormon church in the Gila valley. Mr. Kimball was a democratic assemblyman from Graham county in the last legislature. At a Mormon conference the other day he denounced in strongest terms the bringing up of Mormon issues of long ago—issues that have been settled to the satisfaction of the people. He stated that it is the policy of the Mormon church to live in the present and not in the dead past, and he denounced in strong terms the article which appeared in the Graham County Bulletin regarding Mr. Morrison.

This ought to give the democratic demagogues that tired feeling and a desire to "go way back and sit down." The rebuke administered by Mr. Kimball was well merited and timely and he is deserving the thanks of the fair minded people of the territory.

For the benefit of those w cannot, the statement is ma that fruit is the part of a pls which contains the seed, but plant itself is a vegetable.
