FRON CAMP DEVIN.—Licutement Wheeler, A. Q. M. at Camp Devin, A. Young, N. P. Fierce, and several soldiers, arrived in towe, Taesday last, from Camp Devin, the new millitary post, on Wainst Creek. We falled to gless any news of importance from the party.

portance from the party.

WILLIAMON VALEET.—This, one of the most beautiful mountain valleys in the Territory has at least attracted the attention of futures, for we learn that Joseph II. Davis, and six we seeve others have taken ranches and planted corn, etc., in the valley.
It actuated on the Terroutt and Mohave road, twenty-four miles distant from Prescott, contains thousands of serves of hay and farming leand, and is in the midst of a thickly wooded country.

ROBERT POSTLE and family arrived in town Tuesday esening from Chino Valley. M. Postle informed us that the second Tuesday evening from Chino Valley. Mr. Postle informed us that the growing crops on his fine ranch in that valley, were looking splendid.

Francisco Meanachis," by Germell Felmer's and list surveyers, in their maps and reports, and we must say that we are not pleased with the new-mon. The aventains influed to have gone into history under the mann, "Then Francisco." and we, with all the people who lies within night of the great old pile, object to giving It any other name than "Mount San Francisco."

House Fairs.—Whole swarms of these winged variable visit samually, and make it swarm for man and beast. They stay, however, but a short time—from shout the first of Jone, until the first of July, when the ratioy season sets in and they die or migrate. They live in the timber, and rare-by, if were, venture into the foot-bill raileys.

Arizona City-Coles 34; Goldwater, 3. So, it seems, Mr. Coles has won the "prize." For Recorder, P. Doll had no opponent, James Dana was elected Sheriff, and Isaac Bradshaw, Councilman. This, we believe, is the second time that Messrs. Coles and Doll have been elected to fill their respective offices. Mr. Dana has held the position of Sheriff for some time past. All are said to be good, honest, capable men.
