SLAIN DEPUTY'S KILLER FOUND

Phoenix Man Confesses; Murder Charges Filed By Yuma Official

YUMA, Jan. 26.—(AP)—First degree murder charges were filed late this afternoon against Ray Marvin Graves, 27, of Phoenix for the fatal shooting of Deputy Sheriff Sylvester Villa here Saturday night.

The charges were filed by Fred Louis Ingraham, Yuma deputy county attorney. Graves waived preliminary hearing and is being held without bond in the county jail for appearance in Yuma county superior court.

Earlier today Sheriff J. A. Beard said Graves had admitted orally that he shot and fatally wounded Villa. Beard quoted Graves as saying:

"I shot the guy because I was scared."

R. H. Lutes, justice of the peace and ex-officio coroner, said he would hold an inquest into the death of Villa tomorrow.

Sheriff Beard said information given his office by a Mexican national had aided in Graves' capture yesterday. When trapped on the desert by three Yuma city policemen, members of a posse of officers who trailed him to the vicinity of Blaisdell, 16 miles southeast of here, Graves was barefooted.

The sheriff said Graves was armed with a pistol when arrested, but offered no resistance.

Villa died early Sunday of the bullet wound received in the abdomen Saturday as he trailed a burglar who had broken into a Yuma home.

Two Tucson ministers took part in the program of the Council of City Pastors held last week at Glide Memorial church, San Francisco, Calif. Rev. Willard A. Schurr participated in the panel discussion on "Preaching and Modern Day Evangelism," and Rev. Maurice Ballenger presented his ideas concerning the "Local Church Program of Education." The meeting, sponsored by the department of city work of the denomination's Board of Missions and Church Extension, was attended by 100 representative Methodist pastors from 10 Western states.

There are approximately 71,000,000 life insurance policies in the United States.

Social Security Aid Tentative Agreement Awaits Ratification

PHOENIX, Jan. 26—(AP)—Ratification of a tentative agreement between the federal government and the states of Arizona and New Mexico relative to social security payments to the Navajos will probably fare at its meeting here Thursday.

This was announced today by William P. Mahoney, chairman of the board. The tentative agreement was reached in conferences last week in Washington, Mahoney said. He explained that under it the state board is to process Indian applications and the Indian department will take care of the financial end.

"This is a temporary measure," he added, "pending legislation in Congress sponsored by the Arizona and New Mexico congressional delegations to place the whole matter of Indian public assistance under the Indian department."

Meanwhile, Mahoney said, the federal social security administration has given assurance that Arizona will receive its regular allocations of federal welfare funds on time.

Mrs. Ana Frohmiller, state auditor, said she was advised today that the state's February check from the FSA was on its way and began preparing February warrants for the state's nearly 11,000 old age assistance recipients.

The proportion of rural population in the United States decreased steadily from 65 per cent in 1890 to 44 percent in 1930, but did not change materially in the '30s.

Rodeo Ticket Shack Opens for Business

Once again the familiar ticket shack has been dragged into place at Congress and Scott to sell tickets for the 1948 Fiesta de los Vaqueros rodeo, February 20-23. Sales will continue through February 19.

Ferd Lauber, committee chairman, announced yesterday that advance ticket sales have reached $20,500, or $6,000 over advance sales last year. The 605 reservations now are available at the Chamber of Commerce, he said.

Decorations costing $1,500 will be placed on downtown streets, and the Tucson Advertising club will be in charge. Illuminated shadow boxes, depicting rodeo scenes, will be placed at 11 downtown intersections.

City Clerk Receives Two Liquor Requests

An application to transfer the liquor license held by James Hardy and Oakley T. Norton at 1443 East Broadway has been received by the city clerk. Abe Brothers is seeking to put the license in his name but will not use it at the present location, which is near a school. Brothers intends building a store at a new location to use the license.

An application has also been received from Emil P. Malanga asking a wholesale wine and beer license for the Malanga Distributing company, 711 West St. Mary's road.

U. S. Public Roads Administration estimates there were 30,545,000 privately owned automobiles in the U. S. at the end of 1947.
