Attempted Homicide per Domestic Violence

Location of Incident: 8700 block of E. 38th Place – Yuma, AZ

On Saturday, December 21, 2019 at approximately 11:44 PM, the Yuma County Sheriff’s Office responded to a report of an attempted homicide in the 8700 block of E. 38th Place.

The suspect, D’andre Boode, 24 years of age, of Yuma, was involved in an argument with another subject at his residence. The argument turned physical when Boode stabbed the victim.

The victim fled the residence to a neighbor’s residence and Boode followed. The victim was able to enter the neighbor’s residence and Boode forced entry to continue to follow. Boode attempted to continue assaulting the first victim and the occupants of the residence attempted to stop him.

Boode then began damaging items inside the residence and then assaulted two of the occupants. One of the occupants sustained injuries caused by a sharp object.

Deputies responded, contacted, and arrested Boode.

The first victim was transported to Yuma Regional Medical Center for injuries sustained. The other victims involved were treated on scene for injuries sustained.

Boode was booked into the Yuma County Detention Center for two counts of attempted homicide, two counts of aggravated assault, and one count of endangerment.
